

InSight Intuitive Consulting Workshop/Webinars

Intuition In Business

Would you like your staff to be better at what they do? This workshop helps them to open to their intuition, increase creativity, react to situations and clients better and make decisions based on the facts at hand, accepted business practices AND their intuition.

Intuitive Meditation That Creates Success For Everyone

Would you like to give your staff something that benefits them and your company? I teach a simple style of meditation to reduce stress, refocus, find balance and clear thinking.

An Intuitive Approach To Sales

Do your staff pay attention to the fact that potential clients are intuitive too? What do they experience from your sales staff? Learn intuitive techniques to prepare how others experience you; learn to read your prospective clients AND to set the energy before sales.

Routine Will Kill Your Success

When staff are in a rut or routine they may be working hard and not achieving their goals. I will show your staff intuitive techniques to manage the energy of change, find what keeps them from taking risks or getting out of your comfort zone.

"Goals" Is Not a Four-Letter Word

You have tried everything and still cannot get your staff to achieve their goals. I created an intuitive approach to visualize, communicate, commit to and achieve goals that is simple and effective.

Creating Money & Wealth Using Intuitive Techniques

Working hard and not making the money that you want? Do all those who work for you have the same money concepts that you do? I will present an intuitive perspective to find the money pictures that stand in our way and create new money concepts to invite wealth.

Visualize Success

You want success. Is your staff with you on this or are they working at a job? I will stimulate their concepts of success to empower your company, recognize what we believe and change your concepts to attract greater success.

Intuition, Imagination, and Creativity

Your business depends on the creativity and forward thinking of your staff. I will help them, using an intuitive approach, to think in new ways, to create new products and services, to solve problems and simply make great things happen.

Developing Your Personal Mission Statement

Are your staff self motivated? Do they have a vision? This is important to your success. I will help them develop a personal mission statement that includes what they value, what is important to them then align this with what they do.

Men and Women At Work—Both Are Right

Discover how men and women operate differently at work, run businesses, make sales, supervise, etc. Both work with the proper techniques and tools. Understand and allow these differences.
